This was repeated several times at telling points in his address. this: That, whereas, one of the most important obstacles to the spread of the Gospel among many native races is the importation of alcoholic liquors by Christian nations; Resolved, that our Christianity needs a little more Christianizing at the core. (Great applause.) And I am sure that if our beloved and honored Christian statesman, ex-President Harrison, were here to-night, he would second this resolution, for in that grand address in which he set the keynote of the Conference he uttered this memorable sentence: The men who like Paul have gone to heathen lands with the message, We seek not yours, but you, have been hindered --mark the words-- hindered by those who, coming after, have reversed it. Rum and other corrupting agencies come in with our boasted civilization, and the feeble races wither before the hot breath of the white man's vices. The history of foreign missions has been a confirmation and a commentary of our noble President's Christian true words. For how many years have nations make ships from Christian ports carried misten drunkards. to one sionanes in the cabin, and rum, fire christian. arms and opium in the hold? Even Britain and America have held out to heathen races the Bible in one hand and...
