To thank me for a little service I have rendered her, said she, blushing from the fear of seeming to boast of her liberality. Well, said the King; since she is your relation, allow me to have the pleasure of serving her too. I will give her fifty louis a year out of my private purse, and, you know, she may send for the first year s allowance to-morrow. Madame burst into tears, and kissed the King s hand several times. She told me this three days afterwards, when I was nursing her in a slight attack of fever. I could not refrain from weeping myself at this instance of the King s kindness. The next day, I called on Madame du Chiron to tell her of the good fortune of her prote ge e; I forgot to say that, after Madame had...
