HHS and EPA have been using special hiring authority provided under 42 U.S.C. 209(f) and (g)-referred to in this report generally as Title 42 or specifically as section 209(f) or section 209(g)-to appoint individuals to fill mission critical positions in science and medicine and, in many cases, pay them above salary limits usually applicable to federal government employees. GAO was asked to assess the extent to which HHS and EPA have (1) used authority under sections 209(f) and (g) to appoint and compensate employees since 2006, and (2) followed applicable agency policy, guidance, and internal controls for appointments and compensation. GAO analyzed agency Title 42 data, interviewed agency officials, and conducted file reviews.
