

Life in Poetry: The Evolutionary Garden of Eden

By Feliciano T Bantilan Jr

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The insights from Science on aspects of our day-to-day living expressed in poetry-make this book uniquely different. Human nature, lived, is the subject matter of this book of poems. I have drawn ideas from Science-mainly Evolutionary Biology-to illumine facets of human life, articulated in the rhymes and rhythms of verse. On death, for example, I attempt to provide insights from new physics notions on nothingness. Poems are my way of making sense of the human condition we all share and we all are in. In moments of silence, the big questions come to the surface and tug at our hearts for answers. Paul Dirac, a renowned British physicist, famously remarked that poets write not to be understood, while scientists write just the opposite. With the aim of being fully understood, I offer my word compositions, arising from reflections on a lifetime. Each poem in this collection tells a little story which draws illumination mainly from the widely under-appreciated, real Story of our Creation in the evolutionary Garden of Eden, in the savannahs in Africa. Our Creation story was...
