We would like to provide broad flexibility in the kind of systems that we have in schools for the education of chil-dren. Theres no coercion here. What were trying to do is to pro-vide options for parents and for those who administer schools. If they decide that a single-sex school or a single-sex classroom brings the kind of advantages that they need in order to accomplish their educational goals, we dont want to restrict that. And so what we are attempting to do now is to provide that kind of flexibility. We were in New York at the Young Womens Leadership School. I had a chance to talk to girls who felt and expressed that the school that they were attending now gave them a really real new lease on life. This kind of environment they...
