Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 76: December 3, 1914 Efforts have been made by the Presiding Bishopric and others to locate the saints, who gather from other lands, where they can get a livelihood. All are employed as far as the records show. Many bishops have taken fatherly interest in the saints who have immigrated to Zion. Homes have been provided, employment secured as far as possible, and through the united efforts of the saints supplies and furniture have been obtained and given them to help them to get started again in life. This should be the policy of all the organizations of the Church. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
