Brand New Book. Excerpt from The Living God in England and India: A Sermon Preached by Baboo Keshub Chunder Sen, in Mill-Hill Chapel, Leeds, on Sunday, August 28th, 1870 God s Providence, not merely general but special Providence, acting in a special manner for the salvation of that great country. You see how, forty years ago, when the light of lvestern know ledge first shone forth in India, a small number of earnest-minded men gathered together in the metropolis of that country for the purpose of severing their bonds through God. You see there a small band of not more than fifty. Their Object was to worship God in spirit and in truth - to worship not gods and goddesses, made of clay and stone - to worship not the (lead things of this world, not men or books, but the living God, infinite in holiness and power, mercy and wisdom, the Supreme Ruler of the universe. But they were in the beginning a body of Vedantists. They based their teaching upon the national books of the Hindoos; they accepted those books as the ford of God, and tried to throw away all the later superstition and idolatry of their countrymen, and cling to the purer faith as it was revealed in the earlier Scriptures of the nation. They were simply Revivalists; they wanted to restore Hindooism to its primitive purity. They saw that the stream of pure religion, which was pure and sweet when it first came from God through original inspiration and revelation to the early Aryans in India, was defiled and contaminated as it passed through many, many...
