He leans against the creaking mast, and feels The Oceans pulse in every trembling beam; The wind holds him fast bound, and now reveals Beneath his long dark pilgrims gown, the gleam Of sword and corselet; and his eye doth seem To pierce thro mists and clouds, and view beyond, The land of hope and promise; for no dream The precious words that he but now hath conned; Tho wet, wind-torn, each page forbids him to despond. IV. Is it responsive to that fervent prayer? The sun has broken thro the murky tide Of ragged clouds, dark fringes trailing bare Across the blue beyond; now clear descried In sudden light, his ills seem magnified! - Was he a hero thus to dare alone? Behold him thrice heroic; by his side, His arm around her, clings a fragile one; Too dear; her every pang far sorer than his own. V. Her eyes, a heavenly blue, with his, seek heaven; In that too sudden brightness, turn again To rest on...
