When Dr. Yuri Kuchenkov learns that his daughter has lung cancer, he desperately plans a way to raise money for treatments-by selling a nuclear suitcase bomb to an Islamic terrorist organization headed by a wealthy Jordanian businessman. The nuclear device is secreted inside a container and put aboard a ship headed for the Port of Newark. But CIA Agent Peter O Brien learns only part of Kuchenkov s story before both O Brien s informant and Kuchenkov are killed. Thinking that O Brien knows about the plan to detonate the bomb near New York City, the CIA agent becomes the terrorist s next target. O Brien manages to call his friend, New York Times journalist Hank Brennan, and desperately pleads for help. Brennan embarks upon a reckless scheme that puts the life of the woman he loves at risk and brings him face-to-face with the terrorists, who will stop at nothing to fulfill their mission.
