Excerpt: . . . light the regeneration that had been introduced into this number by that illustrious one who had appeared. Whence also he says that the double letters¹ involve the remarkable number. For the illustrious number, being intermingled with the twenty-four elements, produced the name consisting of the thirty letters. Chapter Xliii. Letters, Symbols of the Heavens. He has, however, employed the instrumentality of the aggregate of the seven numbers, in order that the result of the self-devised counsel² might be manifested. Understand, he says, for the present, that remarkable number to be Him who was formed by the illustrious one, and who was, as it were, divided, and remained outside. And He, through both His Own power and wisdom, by means of the projection of Himself, imparted, in imitation of the seven powers, 3 animation to this world, so as to make it consist of seven...
