Reviews

This pdf is wonderful. It really is written in simple terms instead of hard to understand. It's been developed in an exceedingly simple way and it is just after I finished reading this ebook in which it in fact modified me, altered the way in my opinion.

Excerpt from Annual Reports, Course of Study and by-Laws for the Guidance of the Board of School Commissioners of the City of Charlotte, 1915-1916 There having devolved upon me ever Since my connection with the Committee on Course of Study, Examination, etc., the duty as well as the pleasure to visit our schools once a year in company with the Superintendent, and to make careful investigation as well as examination of the progress made by the various rooms from First Grade to Seventh Grade, inclusive, hearing the classes in their studies, giving heed to their progress, etc., etc., it affords me great pleasure to report that we found great advancement had been made during the past term compared with former years, in all the studies. We found very few hitches in any part of our course and very few complaints as to working of same in any department or grade. A greater number of promotions were made and fewer pupils left down or failed to make the proper average necessary for promotion, than ever before. This was accounted for by the teachers, who expressed themselves as due to the fact that their rooms had not been so badly crowded as in former years. The furnishing of more rooms and more teachers seemed to have been a good investment, as the pupils all seemed to have been greatly benefitted. We found that great interest had been taken by our teachers throughout the White as well as the Colored schools in penmanship. The pupils had become very much enthused owing to the awards that had been made them by the Palmer Company, whose method we are using in writing. Buttons had...
