By Betty Riegel

Simon & Schuster Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Up in the Air: The Real Story of Life Aboard the World's Most Glamorous Airline, Betty Riegel, 'In her fascinating new book, Betty Riegel reveals how she lived the high life as a stewardess for Pan Am, the world's more glamorous airline'- Daily Mirror At the age of 22, Betty Riegel was plucked from more than a thousand eager young British women who had applied to be part of the Pan Am programme and was sent to New York to learn the art of being the perfect stewardess. Growing up in a working-class family with parents who struggled to make ends meet. In her early twenties, she saw an advert in the local newspaper and secured herself an interview for the Pan Am training programme. She was weighed and measured, and declared 'desirable' enough to earn a coveted place. Betty said goodbye to her parents and her high-school sweetheart, boarded her first plane to New York, and landed in Manhattan - a city full of noise, traffic, towering skyscrapers and promise. Under the watchful eye of her housemother, Dottie, Betty was taught deportment, geography, safety, make-up application and how to...

Reviews

It is one of the best books. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. You won't feel monotony at any moment of the time (that's what catalogues are for regarding the event you check with me).
