Accountability Office, 2011 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)750214207 Subject: Economic assistance -- United States -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . As noted in our initial TARP report under the mandate, we identified a preliminary set of indicators on the state of credit and financial markets 7 that might be suggestive of the performance and effectiveness of TARP. We consulted Treasury officials and other experts and analyzed available data sources and academic literature. We selected a set of indicators that offered perspectives on different facets of credit and financial markets, including perceptions of risk, cost of credit, and flows of credit to 8 businesses and consumers. To update the indicators in this report, we used data from Thomson Reuters, the Federal Reserve, the National Federation of Independent Business, and a broker-dealer to assess the state of the economy and financial markets. We believe that despite certain limitations, these data considered as a whole, are sufficiently reliable for the purpose of presenting and analyzing trends in the economy and financial markets. We conducted this performance audit from March 2010 to January...
